

About Incaventura

Hugo Centi Cabrera

Hugo is the agency's chief of operations and its foundation stone. Together with Lizbeth, he developed Sudamerica Tour after living in Switzerland for three years, studying tourism in Arequipa and spending years as a guide in South America. Hugo has a very friendly and relaxed personality, which with his various languages and in-depth knowledge of the geography, history and culture of the Andean countries makes him the agency's top guide. Hugo has led various expeditions with businesses and television crews including the BBC (United Kingdom), Petrobras (Brazil), CCTV Television (China), Red Globo Television (Brazil), RW Cine Channel Productions (Brazil), Cristobal de Acuña TVE (Spain), the Source of the Amazon scientific expedition (Brazil) among others.

Lizbeth Junco Cabrera

Lizbeth is the agency's manager and direct coordinator of tour programmes, one of the most important members of the team thanks to her efficiency, good humour and leadership. Lizbeth graduated with a degree in Tourism from Arequipa's San Agustin University after 5 years of study. She speaks Spanish and English and lived for many years in Cabanaconde in the Colca Valley. She has in-depth knowledge of geography and culture thanks to her many journeys, and is always happy to share this knowledge with others. She also has a great talent for storytelling and can fascinate friends and acquaintances with tales of life in the Peruvian sierra.

Izabela Handerek

Izabela is a journey inspired Polish woman who has seen much of the world. After completing her Master's degree in International Business in France and China she moved to Arequipa in order to follow up her great passions Sport and Salsa and to discover a new continent. Izabela is a talented linguist and speaks French, English, Spanish, German and Chinese. Izabela helps us to establish new international partnerships and takes care of the Polish and French markets.

Nicolas Castermans

Nicolas is our expert for trekking and works among the work in the office for us as a guide. With his charming, always good-humored nature he is ensuring that our customers have an unforgettable travel experience. Nicolas is French and has lived a long time in China for his Master's degree in International Management and Tourism. He speaks fluent Spanish and English and Chinese. He is very well traveled and keen on sports which is making him the perfect partner for your trekking trip in Peru.

Christin Vogt

Christin is from Germany and maintains our German target market. After she finished secondary school in the North of Germany in 2009, she worked as a courier in Mallorca and started her tourism studies in the Netherlands in 2010. During her holidays she continued working on the Spanish holiday island until she moved to Bangkok and Bali as part of her studies in 2014. Christin became part of Sudamerica Tour in January 2015 and speaks besides German also English and Spanish. In addition to her tasks in our office she guides trekking tours in the Colca Canyon.
