

Tour Chiguata

Early in the morning at around 7am we head towards the most beautiful Pre-Incan terraces of South America called Yumina. From there we will start the trekking along the river Chiguata. We will enjoy the untouched nature while we are passing the Arequipenan gorge and watching the three mighty volcanoes Misti, Chachani and Picchu Picchu. During the hike we will meet local residents who work on the fields and after we have arrived to the cottage of our friend, we will enjoy a traditional lunch made of organic products from Chiguata village. The trek will take about 3 to 4 hours, we will return to Arequipa at around 5pm.

Optional tour around the village of Chiguata in quad bike or horse.
